

Leveraging the internet to the fullest to boost your business and bring you more customers than ever before using the right experts who know the work and buzzwords in tech! Working with Ducor Technology team for your business needs is a dream come true—we have over 20 years of experience in the IT fields. Each member of our team is employed fulltime with various IT/Software Development firms.

Ducor Technology is a digital creative agency specializing in website design, web development, web-based application development, content management system development; Database design, development & maintenance, and beyond.

Ducor Technology was founded in 2018 by a young Liberian Software Engineer professional to provide innovative and top-notch technology solutions to businesses cross Africa. In addition, Ducor technology has a team of professionals—each team member has a bachelor's degree and beyond in various disciplines in IT, including software development, computer science, computer networking and others.

If you own a business and looking to get online, we can help you get started. We understand the software solution you need to build a communication channel with your customers and generate revenues.

We work with wide range of clients, including government, healthcare, education, non-profit, and more... We build anything you can imagine—from Students Management System, Record keeping System, Patients Management System, Guests Management System and many more. LEGO Digital. Visit our website at www.ducortechology.com or drop us a mail at askus@ducortechology.com.

Selvin Say Sahn

Software Engineering Professional
Tel: (763) 227-9155